

30 THINGS WE LOVE

ABOUT TORONTO

1 Fresh-baked cookies from Desmond & Beatrice—like the blueberry almond chip (page 55).

2 Seeking shade under the bright pink umbrellas at the city's urban sand spot, Sugar Beach (page 37).

3 Savoury pies from the wood fired oven at Queen Margherita Pizza (1402 Queen St. E., 416-466-6555).

4 A stroll along foodie-friendly Baldwin Street for cuisine from global points including Italy, France, Japan and Korea (page 70).

5 Browsing the beautiful cake pedestals, tea pots and gift items at Red Letter (page 54).

6 Experiencing Toronto's waterfront on a harbour tour with Mariposa Cruises (page 42).

7 Scanning the vast selection of dinner- and serveware from the 18th to 20th centuries at Louis Wine (page 46).

8 Teeing off at one of the city's public golf courses (page 22).

9 A leisurely sunset paddle on the Humber River with Toronto Adventures (page 43).

10 Seeing stilt walkers, fire jugglers and more at Scotiabank Buskerfest (page 14).

11 Deep-fried gourmet goodies from Jelly Modern Doughnuts (page 55).

JELLY MODERN DOUGHNUTS Popular chain from Calgary brings artisan doughnuts made with fresh ingredients that are preservative-free, hand-dipped and hand-filled. Flavours include salted caramel, Madagascar bourbon vanilla, maple bacon, red velvet and lemon curd among other offerings. Beautiful packaging makes them ideal for gifts. $29.95 for a dozen, $34.05 for 16 bite-size doughnuts. Open daily. 376 College St., 416-962-2053. Map 1 J2 www.jellymoderndoughnuts.com

14 Catching a Toronto Blue Jays game when the dome of the Rogers Centre is open (page 41).

16 Affordable works from Canadian artists at Art Interiors (page 46).

17 Escaping to the Toronto Islands on a weekday. Fewer visitors means it feels like you have the whole place to yourself (page 71).

18 Navigating the cobblestone laneways of the Distillery Historic District on a two-wheeled Segway

22 Perfectly torched meringue on Cava's lemon pistachio baked Alaska (page 67).

23 Strolling the leafy campus of the city's hallowed educational institution, the University of Toronto (page 43).

24 Perusing original works by more than 50 local craftspeople at the Arts Market (1114 Queen St. E., 647-997-7616).

25 An evening with The Bard beneath the stars at Shakespeare in High Park (page 41).

26 Catching a live concert at the historic Horseshoe Tavern (page 39).

27 Mediterranean-inspired touches at Estiatorio Volos, such as green glass fishing buoys in nets suspended from the ceiling (page 64).

28 Beauty products displayed in an apothecary-style setting at Blossom Lounge (page 52).

29 The ultra-glam interior of Robert Gage Salon, which is awash in black and white with contemporary photos (page 57).

30 Taking in the panoramic skyline view of the city from the 18th floor of the Roof Lounge while you sip a cocktail (page 41).
